Open since 1982, the College Station Community Center is the ideal place to have that special event, easily accessible to TAMU and hotels.

The Center is available for rental to any individual or group, with accommodations from 10-400 in various rooms, day or evening.

Tables, chairs, podiums, movie screens, audio visual equipment, piano, kitchen, ice machine, refrigerators, microwave, coffee pots, patios, and an 800 square foot deck are available.

Rates and fees depend on the type of group utilizing the facility. Reservations should be made one to three months in advance. A deposit is required upon reservation.

For more information, call 409/764-3720 or come by 1300 Jersey Street in College Station, across from the TAMU golf course. Office hours are 8 am to 5 pm, Monday through Friday.

•Community Center Advisory Committee meets on the second Monday of every month 7:00 pm at Community Center.

"Everybody's Talkin' About Shenanigans"

WHAT IS IT? A hang-out for College Station students in grades 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th.

WHERE? Located adjacent to the Community Center.

WHO? Run by the City of College Station Parks and Recreation Department's Community Center staff, along with adult attendants and an advisory committee of teenagers.

HOURS - September through May:

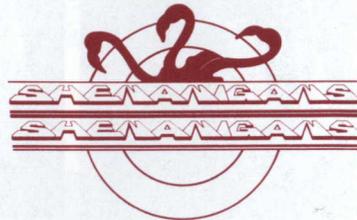

- Monday - Friday after school
 3:00-5:30 pm, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades
- Friday nights
 7:00-10:00 pm, 6th grade only
- Saturday nights
 7:00-10:00 pm, 7th & 8th grades

HOW TO JOIN: Applications for membership available at the Teen Center or Community Center. Capacity crowd is 150 each night, first come first serve.

HOW MUCH: September-May $15.00 (prorated based on month joined). $2.00 for non-members at the door each Friday and Saturday nights. No charge for 5th-8th after school. No charge for membership for 5th grade, but allowed in after school only.

TEEN ADVISORY COMMITTEE: Consists of strong leaders and role models. The whole operation depends on the enthusiasm and follow-through of the teen advisory committee. Teens learn the value of sharing responsibilities and working toward a common goal with each other and adults. They gain insight about civic responsibilities and their municipal government and its processes. Interviews and selections are held periodically throughout the year.

PROSPECTIVE OUTCOME: Shenanigan's Teen Center provides a place for teens to gather, under adult supervision, to interact with peers and share experiences, as well as responsibilities, while maintaining the full support and trust of the community and the College Station City Council.
